AGREEMENTS

The named entrant will be held responsible for agreeing to and honouring the following terms and conditions.
 While films submitted to the 2013 IGFF may be produced by people of any age, the named entrant must be over 18 years of age at the time of submitting the film.
 If you are under 18, please find a responsible adult to enter on your behalf. The named entrant must be readily available for contact regarding the submitted film.
 Entering a film into the IGFF signifies the entrant's agreement to the following terms and conditions.

- Entrants are responsible for:
- Acquiring all necessary rights to use all materials that appear in the film including, but not limited to, all music/audio, cast, locations, creative material, etc.
  - Granting White Heights Media the right to reproduce the film for public exhibition at the IGFF screening and awards nights, and perpetually by any other broadcast or production means throughout the world for promotional, sales and screening purposes.
  - Making extracts (stills, script, synopsis, etc) available from the submitted materials to the press and other media outlets for promotional purposes if required.
  - Paying all necessary fees including the film's entry fee, and shipping or postage costs.

In regards to entry decisions, entrants agree to accept all decisions made by:

- the IGFF Judging panel regarding entry assessments and awards,
- White Heights Media in the case of disputes,
- The Director of the IGFF, who reserves the right to resolve disputes that may arise from these rules and regulations.
